FOREWORD

Welcome to our New York Premier sale, our first auction of 2020, in which we are offering some very exciting pieces in many different collecting fields. Aficionados of Islamic coins will no doubt be interested in an exceedingly rare and extremely fine Arab Sassanian silver drachm which was probably struck during the reign of ‘Abd al-Malik b. Marwan, as well as an unpublished Abbasin gold donative dinar of al-Muktadir. Among the World coins can be found a superb Australian 1916 specimen set, the finest known, all the pieces being graded Specimen 67 or 68, and an extensive selection of Chinese coins, many of them having come from Baldwin’s vault. Of particular note among these are the popular ‘Auto’ dollar of 1928 and an undated dollar of 1916 commemorating the inauguration of the Hung Hsien regime. Needless to say, we are also offering for sale a large number of British coins, including some very special pieces, such as a very rare Philip and Mary angel and an imitation pattern crown by Leonard Wyon, depicting Oliver Cromwell and Louis XVIII. Also on offer are a William III five guineas, 1701, with ornamental sceptres, and from the reign of Queen Anne, a five guineas, 1705, and a 2 guineas, 1711, both in excellent condition. British rarities from the 19th century include a George III pattern five pounds, 1820 and a two pounds of the same date, as well as a William IV proof crown, 1834, and from Victoria’s reign, a proof five pounds, 1893 and an 1845 crown, both in exceptional condition. 20th century patterns and proofs are also included in this sale, including a pattern crown dating from 1910, a number of seldom-seen VIP proofs dated 1956, including a halfcrown which has been graded Proof 68 Deep Cameo, and a South African proof set, 1931, all the coins being graded Proof 65 or 66, and of which only 62 sets were struck. This section is followed by a small selection of commemorative medals, including a number of coronation medals in beautiful condition, an extremely rare and attractive Royal Society gold medal, weighing almost 10 ounces, by William Wyon and a Russian gold medal struck in honour of the visit to England of Alexander I and his sister, the Duchess of Oldenburg.

We hope you will enjoy reading this catalogue and will find some pieces to add to your collection, and we wish you a successful collecting year in 2020.

We look forward to seeing those of you who are able to attend the sale in person, and for those who aren’t, you can bid free of charge through our website www.bsjauctions.com or our app, or leave bids via www.sixbid.com or www.numisbids.com

ANCIENT COINS

GREEK

1. Ionia, Magnesia ad Maeandrum (155-145 BC), stater, Euphemos, son of Pausanias, magistrate, dr. bust of Artemis r., wearing stephane, and with bow and quiver over shoulder, rev. Nike, holding kentron and reins, driving fast biga to r., ΜΑΓΝΗΣΙΩΝ (of the Magnesians) above, ΕΥΦΗΜΟΣ ΠΑΥΣΑΝΙΟΥ below, wt. 8.45gms. (Auctions Roma XVI, 259 (same dies); Heritage 3056, 300661, unpublished in major works), about extremely fine, rare $2500-3500

The discovery of this totally new reverse type for a gold stater on the Attic weight standard of about 8.5gms., signed by a very well-known Magnesian magistrate, enables two long-standing numismatic problems to be solved, allowing the dating of the Ephesian gold staters with which it is associated, and confirming the mid-second century dating of the Ionian stephanophoric coinage. Euphemos was one of the eight magistrates who were responsible for the substantial silver stephanophoric ‘wreath-bearer’ tetradrachm issues. The bust of Artemis seen on the coin is the same style as the Ephesos gold staters which depict on their reverse the Ephesian cult figure of Artemis, 140 BC.

With old Baldwin’s envelope and tickets.

ARAB SASANIAN, SILVER DRACHM WITH HEPHTHALITE COUNTERMARK OF THE HIGHEST RARITY
35. Arab Sasanian, Anonymous, but probably struck during the reign of ‘Abd al-Malik b. Marwan (65-86h/AD685-705), silver drachm, without mint name or date, obv. field: bust of ruler to right wearing a metal helmet and chain mail, holding sheathed sword in right hand, the name of the ruler Khusraw in Pahlawi to right and GDH APZWR (‘may his glory increase’) to left. Around in margin: bism Allah la i/laha illa Allah wa/ haddu Muhammad ra/ sul Allah (‘in the name of God, no god but God unique, Muhammad is the messenger of God’), divided by stars and crescents at 3, 6 and 9 o’clock and pellet within annulet at 12 o’clock; rev. field: impressive arch supported by decorated columns containing vertical barbed spear, two pennants to right, to either side of spear shaft nnsr/ Allah (‘the help of God’); to right of arch downwards: khalqat Allah (‘the image of God’), to left downwards amir al-mu’minin (‘Commander of the Faithful’); in border at 1 o’clock four stars in crescents with Pahlawi word PA (‘praise’); wt.3.22gms. (Morton and Eden, 27 April 2017; Miles, G: Mihrab and ‘Anazah: A study in Early Islamic Iconography, in Archealogia orientale in memoriam Ernst Herzfeld, 1952), with Hephthalite countermark on obverse border at 3 o’clock, small edge chip at 9 o’clock, otherwise extremely fine and of the highest rarity $100,000-125,000

The key to reading this mihrab or ‘anaza drachm lies in the interpretation of the words khalqat Allah (‘the image of God’) rather than the later and usually accepted version khalifat Allah (‘the caliph of God’). This incorrect reading was introduced by the late George Miles, curator of the American Numismatic Society, when he first published this extraordinarily rare drachm. The portrait on the obverse is clearly different from the usual Sasanian bust of Khusraw II, in that it shows him wearing a metal helmet without the usual winged crown above and chain mail. The Arabic legends on the coin are correctly inscribed in the usual kufic script of the time, where it is inconceivable that such a clumsy error would have been accepted by any literate individual handling the piece. The rarity of this coin suggests that it was intended as a pattern issue designed to test whether its design and legends, representing the new faith of Islam, would be acceptable to the people. The barbed spear was clearly an image on the new coinage that should be used in place of the cross which had appeared hitherto. Its great rarity would also imply that this experiment was not successful and that it prompted the Caliph ‘Abd al-Malik to reject the spear and to replace the use of any images with passages from the Holy Qur’an.

An example of this coin was sold by Morton & Eden, Auction 85, 26th April 2017, lot 3. The piece was graded very fine to good very fine and realised £80,000 plus 20% buyer’s premium.

Khwarazmshah, Jalal al-din Mangubarni b. ‘Ala al-din Muhammad (617-628Ah/AD.1220-1231), base gold double dinar, mint not clear, 620h, obv. field: la ilah illa Allah/Muhammad rasul Allah/al-Nasir li-din Allah/amir al-mu'minin; in margin what appears to be Surah IX (al-Tauha), v. 33, but the legend can only be read in part due to the carelessness of the die striker; rev. field: al-Sultan al-a'zam/jalal al-dunya wa'l-din/abu Muzaffar Mangubarni, remainder of legend illegible but probably the name of Mangubarni’s father ‘Ala al-din Muhammad; in margin duriba hadha'l-dinar... decade of date - ‘ashrin, wt. 7.20gms. (Album S: Checklist of Islamic Coins, p. 190, no. 1742), unpublished as a double dinar, unevenly struck but very fine and very rare $10,000-12,000

In 617h/AD.1220 the Mongol forces advanced into the Khwarazmshah’s territories, driving ‘Ala al-din Muhammad bin Takash before them. In a state of panic, he warned his subjects not to try to withstand this invincible army. He eventually escaped to an island in the Caspian Sea, where he died shortly after. His death resulted in the usual struggle for the leadership among his sons, the heir presumptive Uzlaq Sultan, Aq Sultan and Jalal al-din Mangubarni. It was Mangubarni who won, which made his brothers so angry that they plotted to kill him. He managed to escape to Nishapur, but was there for no more than a day before the Mongol army arrived at the city gates. Mangubarni then fled to Ghazna, hotly pursued by the Mongols who finally gave up the chase, leaving him to travel to Parvan in the Hindu Kush. The Mongols followed him there, but Mangubarni defeated them after a fierce two-day battle. He returned to Ghazna and planned to seek safety beyond the Indus River but he was now pursued by an even greater army led by Chinghiz Qa’an himself and he only managed to escape by riding his horse across the Indus River. Mangubarni’s story does end happily, for when he reached the other side of the river, he raised his sword, lance and shield, at which Chinghiz, having given up the pursuit, cried out to his sons in amazement and admiration at Mangubarni’s courage. Although the fabric and calligraphy on this very rare but badly struck coin are typical of the Ghazna mint, Mangubarni is not believed to have struck any coins in the city, but at the nearby fortress of Qa’a Nay. Although only the decade survives it is sufficient to assume that the coin must have been in struck in 620h. This is an exceptional opportunity to acquire a gold coin of one of the greatest and first, but little known, guerrilla fighter heroes of medieval Islam and the only one known to have acquired and maintained his status as a worthy foe of the great Chinghiz Qa’an.
53. Mongol Great Khans, Chingiz Qa’an (602-624h/A.D.1206-1227) gold dinar, Bukhara, no date visible (623-624h), obv. la ilah illa/Allah Muhammad/rasul Allah/pellet (no god but God, Muhammad is the messenger of God), rev. Chingiz Qa’an/al-‘Adil/remainder illegible, wt. 4.94 gms. A Pair of Youthful Experimental Trial Pieces by Leonard Charles Wyon

132. Great Britain, Oliver Cromwell (d.1658), imitation Pattern Crown, dated 1843, struck in pewter, engraved by Leonard C. Wyon, when 16 years of age, dr. and laur. bust l. of Oliver Cromwell, as on the renowned 1658 crown by Thomas Simon, OLIVAR. D G.R.P. ANG. SCO. HIB &c PRO, rev. imitation 5 francs of Louis XVIII, copying the 1816 coinage portrait by Auguste-François Michaut, bust l., hair tied by ribbon, signed below truncation, LEONARD. C. WYON 1843, with explanatory legend, W. WYON R.A. CUDI JUSSIT [William Wyon R.A. ordered this to be struck], plain edge, 39mm. (Attwood, Hard at Work, pp. 58-60; Fogs 44-47; BDM.VI, p. 592, illus.; L&S.5A; ESC.14C; Bull 250 [R³]), certified and graded by NGC as Mint State 63

Leonard Charles Wyon (1826-1891), was the eldest son of William Wyon from whom he learnt his craft (see also lots 133 and 299). He was 16 in 1843 when he made this ‘coin’ as a testament as to his ability. Later the same year, now aged 17, he was appointed Second Engraver to the Royal Mint on the retirement of Jean Baptiste Merlen (1769 - 1850). He succeeded his father as chief engraver in 1851. In recent years two specimens have appeared in the auction market, Baldwin Auction 68, 28 September 2010 (lot 3581), this gilt; and Dr. D. Rees Jones Collection, Spink Auction 117, 19 November 1996 (lot 50).
133. Italy, Vatican, Clement XII (1652-1730-1740), Lorenzo Corsini, a uniface soft metal striking of the obverse of a medal, made at the Royal Mint in London, c. 1843, by the youthful Leonard C. Wyon, a copy of an original portrait by Ermengildo and Ottone Hamerani of the Pope on the Prize Medal of the Accademia di San Luca, his bust r., wearing mozzetta, camero and stole, CLEMENS XII. PONT. MAX., signed below on truncation, LEONARD C. WYON, 43mm. (Attwood, Hard at Work, p. 60, and note; Fig 48; BDM - ), extremely fine and extremely rare

Leonard Charles Wyon (1826-1891), was the eldest son of William Wyon from whom he learnt his craft (see also lots 132 and 299). In 1843 he exhibited his portrait of James Watt at the Royal Academy and between 1845 and 1849 he attended the Academy Schools, winning two medals. Attwood comments on this medal that Wyon ‘was trying to emulate the skill of the Hamerani rather than the identity of the sitter’. Attwood, at the time of the publication of Hard at Work (2014), believed the British Museum specimen of the medal to be unique.

*ex Slaney Collection, where it sold for a hammer price of £300,000 + premium

One of the very last coins designed - and minted - during the long reign of George III, this wonderful coin was not actually struck until shortly after the king's death. Pastrocci was still putting the finishing touches on the dies, trying hard to finish the work before the king passed away, but it was not to be. It seems he was finalising the engraving just as the king took his last breath. In all there were four dies - obverse or portrait and reverse (St. George) for each of the two denominations, the 5-sovereigns as it was originally called, seen here, and the 2-sovereigns piece. Each coin was struck with either plain edge or raised lettered edge indicating the 60th year of the reign. A total of only 25 pieces was made of this £5 pattern. It is believed that William Wyon assisted in finishing the dies, including adding the sword held by Saint George, replacing the broken lance of the original Pastrocci design at the insistence of mint-master W. W. Pole. This coin ranks as one of the most beautiful of all British coins.
170. Great Britain, George III, pattern two pounds, 1820, ANNO REGNI I.X, raised lettered edge, laur. head r.,

rev. St. George and the dragon (S.3784; W&R.179), certified and graded by NGC as Proof 64 Ultra Cameo, but the famous motifs engraved by Pistrucci and touched up by William Wyon remain vivid with gold lustre and shimmering mint frost, the highest-graded example

$70,000-80,000

Companion piece to the pattern 5 pounds of this date, this denomination also exists with either plain or raised lettered edge, indicating the 60th and final year of this long reign. Original called a two-sovereigns, or double sovereign, only 60 pieces total were minted of both edge styles very shortly after the reign technically ended upon the king’s death. Pistrucci’s original design of St. George slaying the dragon was modified by William Wyon to remove the broken lance from the saint’s hand, replacing it with a sword. On this size coin, the designs seem most perfectly set, with the broad plain, reflective field around each motif. A glorious example of this coinage era.

$10,000-12,000

366. Turkey, Abdul Aziz (AH1277-1293; 1861-1876), bronze 10 paras, AH.1277, year 4 (2), toughra and regnal year, rev. legend around value and accession date (KM.700), both certified and graded by NGC, as Mint State 64 and Mint State 63 respectively, both Red Brown (2)

*ex Baldwin’s vault

367. Venezuela, Republic, 2 bolivars, 1879, arms within sprigs above banner, cornucopiae above, rev. head of Bolivar l. (KM.Y23), certified and graded by NGC as About Uncirculated 53

$400-450

368. Yugoslavia, Alexander I, 4 dukata, 1931, sword countermark, conjoined busts l., rev. crowned double-headed eagle (KM.14.1; Fr.4), certified and graded by NGC as Mint State 62

$1000-1500
The following six pieces were seen by the British Royal Mint in 1983 and their comments, where relevant, are included in the catalogue entries.

369. British Colonial coinage, George V, lead impression of the crowned effigy, by Sir Edgar Betram Mackennal, apparently in coinage relief, bust l., wearing ermine robes and neck badge of the Bath and Garter collar, signed B.M. on truncation, without legend, on a wide (63.97mm.) and thick (8.41mm.) planchet, good very fine $500-750

ex Colin Mackennal Kraay Collection and Baldwin’s vault

‘No record has so far been found of the die from which this impression was taken and its purpose is not known. The effigy matches in size that on the coinage intermodel of 14.3.1911 and it seems likely that the die was taken from the intermodel, which also lacks inscription’.

370. Great Britain, George V, Coronation Medal, 1911, lead impression from the obverse matrix of 17.5.1911, conjoined crowned busts of George V and Queen Mary l., taken before the addition of the artist’s initials onto the matrix, 44.39mm. (MYB.309), a little rubbed on King’s face and off-centre on flan, nearly extremely fine $300-350

371. Great Britain, George V, Royal Victorian Medal, 1911, lead impression from an obverse matrix, bare head l., inscription around, 37.56mm. (MYB.13), _extremely fine_ $300-350
ex Colin Mackennal Kraay Collection and Baldwin’s vault

‘The reduction punch completed for the Royal Victorian Medal on 24th February 1911 included the letters Sc which Mackennal placed after his initials on several of his models of George V. The letters were therefore present on the matrix of 2nd June 1911 made from that punch and they combine with diameter and inscription to provide a close link with the lead impression. Unfortunately the matrix has not survived, so that complete certainty is not possible.’

372. Australia, George V, lead impression of the obverse matrix of 29.3.1911 for the Australian penny, crowned bust l., wearing ermine robes and neck badge of the Bath and Garter collar, signed B.M. on truncation, without legend, on a wide (46.76mm.) and thick (5.32mm.) planchet, _extremely fine_ $1000-1500

‘The matrix was sunk from a reduction punch which showed only the effigy and on which the table had been cut away so that the surface of the matrix could be improved. The punch was finished on 17th March 1911 and the records show that the matrix produced from it was worked on extensively by the engraver. This lead impression was taken at an early stage in the work before the inscription had been added and before damage to the orb of the crown had been repaired’.
373. South Africa, George V, Union of South Africa Official commemorative medal, 1910, lead impression from an obverse die, bare head l., GEORGIS V BRIT: OMN: REX ET IND: IMP:, 36.18mm. (MYB.338; Laidlaw 0175), extremely fine $300-350

The medal commemorates the opening of the first Parliament by the Duke of Connaught and awarded to those who took part. Also awarded to certain officers and men of HMS Balmoral Castle, a total of 551 medals was struck by the Royal Mint. The Royal Mint notes from 1983 have the caveat that the impression is ‘probably’ the South Africa medal. ‘A reduction punch with this head and inscription was finished on 27th September 1910. From this punch a matrix was made on 6th January 1911, but it would seem that by this time the striking of the South African medals had been completed and that the matrix was prepared primarily for Police Gallantry medal. The dies for the South African medal must therefore have come directly from the reduction punch and it may therefore be significant that the impression has been taken from a die and not a matrix. The argument in favour of a South African medal is strengthened by the fact that this was the first official medal to bear the effigy of George V’.

374. India, George V, Indian Distinguished Service Medal (and others), lead impression from an obverse matrix, crowned bust l., inscription GEORGIS V KAISAR – I HIND, a broad outer border of the impression bears an inverted inscription (ie the letters reversed) INDIAN “MILITARY” MEDAL and ROYAL MINT, LONDON. 1912, on a wide (46.71mm.) and thick (8.47mm.) planchet (MYB.52), surface dulled but good very fine $300-350

End of Sale
1. APPLICATION AND CONTRACTUAL RELATIONSHIP

1.1. By making a bid, a Bidder acknowledges his acceptance of these Conditions and will be bound by them.

1.2. Baldwin's of St James's Ltd. ("Auctioneer") act as Auction Agent for the Seller for the sale of a Lot to the Buyer unless any of these entities is in fact the owner of the Lot. As such, the Auction Agent is not responsible for any default by the Seller or the Buyer.

1.3. The contract for the sale of a Lot is between the Seller and the Buyer and is subject to these Conditions and the Seller's Conditions.

2. PRE-SALE AND DESCRIPTIONS

2.1. Statements made by us in a Catalog, during the course of the Auction or elsewhere, describing a Lot, including its authorship, origin, age, size, condition, genuineness, authenticity or value, are intended as a guide for interested Bidders. These are statements of opinion only and should not be relied on as statements of fact. Illustrations of the Lots are for general identification only.

2.2. Lots by their nature are usually aged and varied in condition. The absence of any description of a defect, damage, modification or restoration in any Catalog does not imply that there are none.

2.3. Coins are graded to accepted international standards to the best ability of our specialists. You acknowledge that the grading of coins is subjective and may vary from specialist to specialist, as the process is by nature an art and not a science. For this reason, we do not automatically accept and are not bound by the opinions of third party coin grading services for any purposes including before and after the sale of a Lot.

2.4. If you are interested in a Lot, we strongly recommend that you view it in person before the Auction and form your own opinion of the description of the Lot.

2.5. We reserve the right to change any aspect of the published description of a Lot prior to the Auction. Any change may be published on our website, displayed at the Auction, announced by the auctioneer prior to the sale and/or communicated in any other manner.

2.6. All copyright in Catalogs, including images, belongs to Auctioneer.

3. ABSENTEE COMMISSION BIDS

3.1. If you are unable to attend the Auction personally, you may submit a Commission Bid and we will endeavor to purchase the Lot on your behalf for the lowest price possible. You must submit this in writing using the Commission Bid Form and send it to us by post, fax or email at least 24 hours prior to the Auction.

3.2. For all Commission Bids, you must supply your name and address, contact telephone number and email. You must also provide the Lot number and description of the Lot, the amount of your Bid and any other information requested in the Commission Bid Form or by us. It is your responsibility to provide the correct information and to ensure that we have received your Commission Bid.

3.3. We do not charge for this service and therefore we will not incur any liability for executing (or failing to execute) the Commission Bid.

3.4. If you submit a Commission Bid verbally (whether by telephone or otherwise), we shall not be responsible for any misunderstandings (by either us or our agents or you) in relation to your Bid. All bids made in this way must be confirmed in writing before the Auction.

3.5. If we receive two Commission Bids for equal value for the same Lot, the Bid received first by us shall take precedence.

3.6. “Buy” commissions and unlimited Commission Bids will not be accepted.

4. AUCTION SALE

4.1. This sale is a public auction sale conducted by licensed and bonded auctioneers.

4.2. Before the Auction, all potential Bidders must notify their name and address to the Auctioneer and, if required, provide proof of identity to our satisfaction and bank or other credit references. Bidders unknown to Auctioneer are requested to establish credit or deposit 25% of the total amount of their bids before the sale. We cannot accept bids from minors.

4.3. The highest Bidder for each Lot shall be the Buyer. If there is a dispute, the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the dispute including re-offering the disputed Lot for sale. The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse any bid he feels is not made in good faith.

4.4. A Bidder must submit a bid for an entire Lot and each Lot constitutes a separate sale. The Auctioneer shall, however, have absolute discretion to divide any Lot, to combine any two or more Lots, or to withdraw any Lot from the Auction without giving any reason (including after the hammer has fallen). Bidding shall be regulated at the absolute discretion of the Auctioneer. The Auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid.

4.5. All sales are final. Subject to Condition 4.4, the contract for the sale of the Lot is concluded on the fall of the hammer.

4.6. You cannot cancel your purchase of a Lot once the hammer has fallen.

4.7. The Auctioneer reserves the right to include in any Auction its own material as well as material from affiliated or related companies, principals, officers or employees. The Auctioneer may have direct or indirect interests in any of the Lots in the Auction and may collect commissions. THE TWO PRECEDING SENTENCES SHALL BE DEEMED A PART OF THE DESCRIPTION OF ALL LOTS CONTAINED IN THE CATALOG.

4.8. The Auctioneer may bid on its own account at any auction.

4.9. All Lots are offered for sale subject to a Reserve.

4.10. Estimates in the Catalog are not limits or reserves but reflect the actual market prices and are intended as a guide for bidders. The actual prices realized may be higher or lower than these valuations. The starting price will be about 80% of the estimates, unless there are higher offers.

5. PAYMENT

5.1. The Purchase Price payable by a Buyer is the Hammer Price plus a Buyer's Premium of 20% of the Hammer Price. The Buyer of a Lot is responsible for paying New York sales tax, unless the Lot is exempt.

5.2. The Buyer of a Lot shall pay the Purchase Price in full before the Lot can be delivered to the Buyer.

5.3. Except where Condition 5.2 applies, any part of the Purchase Price outstanding after the Auction shall be payable by you within 14 days of the date of the Auction, the due date.

5.4. The Purchase Price is payable by you in full in US funds. You are not entitled to set-off any amounts that you claim are due from us or anyone else or make any other deductions.

5.5. Unless we have agreed in writing otherwise, you shall act on your own account as principal in respect of the sale and therefore if you accept a commission from a third party to bid on their behalf, you do so at your own risk and will remain personally liable (jointly with your principal) to us for the Purchase Price in accordance with these Conditions.

5.6. The methods of payment and surcharges are set out below:

5.7. If the Purchase Price has not been settled within 30 days of the Auction date interest will be charged at 2½% per month from the due date of payment to the date that cleared funds are received whether that is before or after any legal judgment. This is without prejudice to any other rights that we have for non-payment.

5.8. If you fail to comply with your obligations under these Conditions, the Lot, in respect of such non-compliance, may at our discretion be put up for sale at Auction or privately and resold. In this case, you will be liable in full and will indemnify us for all losses, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and legal costs) incurred as a result, including the costs of the resale and the amount (if any) by which the Hammer Price obtained on the resale is less than the Hammer Price obtained on the original sale of the Lot to the Buyer.

6. RISK, TITLE AND DELIVERY

6.1. The risk of damage/loss to the Lot will pass to the Buyer on the fall of the hammer.

6.2. Unless agreed by us, you should collect the Lot within 7 days of the date of payment in full. We reserve the right to charge for storage and to resell by Auction or privately without notice to you, if a Lot is not collected. Alternatively, we will send the Lot to you by recorded post. Postage and insurance costs will be charged as additional costs.

6.3. Except in relation to Forgeries, you must satisfy yourself that the correct Lot has been delivered to you at the time of collection/delivery. We will not be responsible for any discrepancy which might be discovered after the Lots have been collected. If we have shipped the Lot to you, we will not be responsible for any discrepancies if you fail to notify us within 24 hours of receipt.

6.4. It is the Buyer's responsibility to obtain any necessary import, export or other licences required in relation to a Lot.

7. GUARANTEE FOR FORGERIES

7.1. The Auctioneer is a member of the International Association of Professional Numismatists and in accordance with the conditions of membership, shall provide a guarantee to the Buyer for all Lots against Forgeries on the terms set out in these Conditions ('Guarantee').

7.2. For the purposes of these Conditions, a 'Forgery' means an imitation that has been created with the fraudulent intent to deceive in respect of the authorship, origin, date, age, period and the correct description does not correspond with the description in the Catalog and as a result has a value significantly less than it would have been had it been genuine.
7.3 You must notify us in writing within one (1) month of becoming aware that the Lot may be a Forgery. The Lot must be returned to us in the same condition as at the time of sale and you must submit evidence that the Lot is a Forgery, the onus being on you to prove that it is a Forgery.

7.4 You acknowledge that:
(a) we reserve the right to re-assess the Lot or engage at our expense any expert or authority considered by us at our sole discretion to have the necessary expertise to undertake a re-assessment of the Lot;
(b) following our re-assessment of the Lot, you agree to be bound by our decision as to whether or not the Lot is a Forgery.

7.5 You shall not be entitled to a refund for a Forgery if:
(a) the grounds for claiming that the Lot is a Forgery is based primarily on a difference of opinion between us and a third party providing coin grading services;
(b) the grounds for claiming that the Lot is a Forgery are by reason of any damage and/or restoration and/or modification work of any nature;
(c) the description of the Lot in the Catalog was in accordance with generally accepted opinions of numismatic specialists as at the date of publication of the catalog or was disproportionately expensive, in both cases as determined in our absolute discretion.

7.6 If we agree that the Lot is a Forgery then subject to:
(a) you being able to confirm in writing that you can transfer legal and beneficial title to the Lot to us or as directed by us free from all encumbrances or third party claims of any nature; and
(b) the exclusions in Condition 7.7, then the sale of the Lot will be rescinded so that it is cancelled and we will refund the Purchase Price to you in full.

7.7 Your right to return the Lot and receive a refund of the Hammer Price under the Guarantee is your sole remedy against us, our agents and sub-contractors and/or the Seller for a Forgery. You will not be entitled to claim interest on the amount due as at the time of sale and you must submit evidence that the Lot is a Forgery, the onus being on you. Neither we, our agents or sub-contractors nor the Seller shall be liable for costs, expenses, damages or any other liability however it arises relating to a Forgery.

7.8 In accordance with the restriction in Condition 10.2, the benefit of the Guarantee is personal to the original Buyer and is not transferable to a new owner of the Lot or any other person.

8. EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY AND WARRANTIES

8.1 Except where these conditions expressly state otherwise, no warranty as to merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose is given in a buyer concerning a lot and each lot is sold “as is” and as shown with all faults, imperfections, errors of description (including authorship, origin, age, size, condition or value) or lack of authenticity or genuineness and neither we nor the seller nor any of our agents or sub-contractors will be liable for any damages, costs, expenses or any other liability arising out of the same whether or not caused by negligence. The auction is not an approval sale.

8.2 Except as provided in 6.3, any claims for adjustment other than authenticity must be made in writing within seven (7) days after delivery of the goods. No Lots may be returned without our written permission. It is the Buyer’s responsibility to have the Lots fully insured while in his possession. Our maximum liability under these Conditions is the amount of the Purchase Price paid by you.

8.3 Neither we nor any of our agents or sub-contractors shall be liable, whether in tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), contract, misrepresentation or otherwise:
(a) for loss of profits or business, depletion of goodwill and/or similar losses; loss of contracts; or
(b) any special, indirect, incidental, consequential, exemplary or pure economic loss, costs, damages, charges or expenses.

8.4 We shall not be liable to you or be deemed to be in breach of these Conditions by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of our obligations in the Conditions, if the delay or failure was due to any cause beyond our reasonable control.

8.5 Nothing in these Conditions excludes or limits our liability for any matter which it would be illegal for us to exclude or attempt to exclude under New York law or for our fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

9. DATA PROTECTION

9.1. By agreeing to these Conditions, a Bidder acknowledges and agrees that we will use personal information of a Bidder for the purpose of the Auction and ancillary matters, including providing a Buyer’s personal details to any other person where necessary to enforce our rights under these Conditions.
